All for a tender cooing voice. And gentle fluttering sighs; All for the promise made to me, By story telling eyes.

All for the pretty girlish face,
For a hand as white as snow,
I dreamed a foolish dream of lovs,
Long, long years ago.

LOVE'S CHIDINGS.

The fountains mingle with the river. And the river with the ocean, The winds of heaven mix forever With a sweet emotion: Nothing in the world is single, All things by a law divine, In one another's being mingle, Why not I with thine?

See the mountains kiss high heaven. And the waves clusp one another;
No sister flower would be forgiven,
If it disdained its brother:
And the sunbeams clasp the earth,
And the tooonbeams kiss the sea; What are all these kissings worth, If thou kiss not me? Shelby's Love's Philosophy.

HUMOROUS.

Angling for Dog. "Brick" Pomeroy tells the following good "dorg" story:

Another time we were traveling on grounds we had no right to tramp over. The only excuse was like that of military necessityit was better fishing through the farms where the trout had been preserved than in the open lots where all could fish.

It was early morning. We had risen at 3, ridden ten miles, and struck the creek as the trout were ready for breakfast. Looking carefully for a sheltered place to hitch our horses, we slyly crept on behind fences, etc., till we reached the part of the stream not generally fished. A farm house stood a quarter of a mile away. We saw the morning smoke curling lightly from a stovepipe; saw a man and two boys come out to do chores; saw women busy about the door, and a ferocious bull dog wandering about the yard.

It ever we fished close, it was then-not a whisper to disturb the birds, or the owners of the land. We crawled through the grass and dodged behind clumps of alders, litting la ge speckled beauties out of the water till our basket was full. This was the time to have gone; but the trout were so large and bit so readily, that we could not withstand the temptation, so we decided to string and hide what we had, and take another basket full So at it we went. No sooner would the hook touch the water than we had a trout. We forgot the man, the boys, and the dog ! Suddenly there was a rushing through an oat field as if a mad bull were coming! We looked toward the house, and saw the farmer and his two boys on a fence, the women in the door, and the bull dog bounding toward us. We saw it all-we had been discovered. The well-trained dog had been sent to hunt us out, and, as the matter appeared, it was safe to bet he was doing that thing lively!

To outrun a dog was not to be thought of. There was no time to lose. He cleared a fence and came for us just as we reached a tree, and by great activity, took a front seat on a limb above his reach. Here was a pre-cious go! A vicious bull dog under the tree, and a farmer and two big boys ready to move down upon our works. It was fight, footrace or fangs!

The farmer yelled to his dog-" Watch him, Tige !"

Tige proposed to do that little thing, and keeping his eyes on us, seated himself under the tree. Then spoke the ugly farmer man-"Just hold on thar, stranger, till we get our breakfast: then we'll come and see you! I you are in a hurry, however, you can go now! Watch him, Tige!"

We surmised trouble-quite much; for twice had that bold man of bull dogs and agriculture elegantly walloped innocent troutists for being seen on his suburban premises His reputation as a peace man was not good, and there arose a large heart toward our throat. Time is the essence of contracts, and the saving ordinance for those in trouble .-We had a stout line in our pocket, and a large hook intended for rock bass if we failed to take trout. And, as good luck would have it, we got a nice sandwich and a piece of boiled corned beef in our other pocket.

We called the dog pet names, but he was not on it! Then we tried to move downwhen he'd move up! At last we trebled our bass line, fastened the great limerick to it, baited it with corn beef, tied the end of the line to a limb and angled for dog!

Tige was in appetite. He smelt of the beef; it was very nice. He swallowed it, and sat still with his eves on us for more, but with no friendly look beaming from his countenance. Not any!

Then we pulled gently on the line; it was fast! Tige yanked and pulled, but 'twas no use! The attention of the canine was diverted from us; his business was being done by another line ! We quickly slid down the tree; coming near blistering our back doing it; seized our pole, and straightway went thence somewhat lively. We found our string of fish, and reached the buggy and a commanding spot in the road in time to see the sturdy yeoman move forth.

We saw him and his cohorts, male and fe male, move slowly, as if in no haste. We saw them look up the tree. We saw an anxious group engaged about the dog. We came quickly home, and kindly left the bass line and hook to the farmer.

HISTORICAL SKETCH BY THE "FAT CON-TRIBUTOR."-Richard Third was one of the kings of England who had a wonderful faculty of bereaving the family of any person he didn't like. He could provide a funeral with a corpse upon as short notice as any man in the business. He couldn't be fooled into a bargain-born with his eye-teeth cut. His nurse let him fall when he was an infant, and a hump back was the consequence. Richard wasn't always king. He belonged to the royal family, to be sure; but he was poor at one time, and obtained a scanty livelihood by publishing an almanac. It was called "Poor Richard's Almanac." Old Ben. Franklin did his printing. Richard suffered great discontent in winter, and frequently alluded to it, particularly if he had to go on the stage invwhere. This winter of his discontent was only relieved by the visits of a little son he had in York, who made "glorious summer" for him even in the middle of January. THE DIFFERENCE .- An old negro man of Washington county was pursued by a white Call carly. October 1, 1867. Radical for voting the Conservative ticket .--The red string insisted that the old man's real principles were the same as those of the Radical party. "No, sir," replied the worthy old freedman; "you is mistaken-dar's a wide difference 'tween us. Dese white Radis a black man wid white insides. The great success attending the use of this valuable preparation, and the extensive sale of it for the few years of its introduction to the public favor, is a sure indication of its true merits and great popularity. It is becoming extensively used in every part of the country, East, West, North and South, and wherever it is sold it takes the place of all other preparations of a similar kind. This is another strong evidence of its great power in removing all diseases incident to both Man and Beast. No Liniment has yet been made to equal it, it only needs a trial to prove its great value. It, it only needs a trial to prove its great value.

GET THE BEST!

TIME SAVED IS MONEY MADE!

THE very best Sewing Machine now in use is the WILCOX & GIBBS NOISELESS FAMILY SEWING MACHINE, which by its rapid motion SAVES TIME, and by its noiseless operation does not shock the nerves, but its work glides away from under the needle with magical swittness, leaving the operator in a state of satisfaction and relief that so much habeen accomplished in so little time without labor; for there was no perplexity to get THE NEEDLE SET:

no wondering how to get the two tensions arranged just right; there was no ceaseless clatter to disturb, nor was there the dreaded reversing of the motion, causing a total disarrangement of needl bobbins, and shuttles, after a half hour spent in GETTING READY;

neither was there the exhausting labor to run con neither was there the exhausting lator to run consequent upon much and complex machinery; there was none of these difficulties, for in the "Letter G" all these have been done away with; and as better satisfaction can be had by seeing its operation, we advise persons needing just such a machine, to call at the residence of Mrs. Ann E. Monroe, Charlestown, where one can be seen in overation, or send town, where one can be seen in operation, or send for samples of work and circulars to
